

Testo

Manufacturer's Warranty

Seller warrants to the extent of the purchase price of the goods purchased hereunder that it will repair or, at its option, replace, F.O.B. Seller's factory, equipment or parts of its own manufacture which fail in normal use because of defects in workmanship or materials. All Testo products carry a specific warranty as outlined in the product literature, however this does not apply in the case of mishandling, or abnormal wear and tear. Specific product warranties can be found by contacting your local representative.

Service/Calibration

All items returned for service or calibration must contain paperwork including:

- The reason for return
- Contact name
- Phone number
- Fax number

Testo, Inc. will provide a quotation prior to performing any non-warranty service. No service can be completed prior to approval.